CM no.2/2023

Notice. It is appropriate that, before suspending the declaration of deemed election of the new board of directors, the respondents be heard. However, in view of the financial and other implications of the decisions of new board’s action which per the learned counsel’s submissions appears prima facie to have been improperly appointed, a short date is being given noting that in case of inability of any of the respondents to appear and put their case on the said date, the application will be decided nonetheless on ad interim basis.
