Crl. Org. No.01/2024

Laiba Rauf

Vs.

Professor Doctor Rizwan Taj and others

S. No. of order/ proceedings	Date of order/ Proceedings	Order with signature of Judge and that of parties or counsel where necessary.
06	20.02.2024.	Mr. Khaliq ur Rehman Saifi, Advocate for the petitioner. Barrister Usama Rauf, advocate for respondents No.1 and 2/PM&DC. Mr. Amjad Hameed Ghuari, advocate for respondent No.3.

Learned counsel for Pakistan Medical and Dental Council (“PM&DC”) / respondents No.1 and 2 has brought on record letter dated 19.02.2024 according to which, it has been acknowledged that the petitioner’s MDCAT result would be valid for two years commencing from 13.11.2022. However, in the said letter, it has been stated that the order dated 08.12.2023 passed by this Court in W.P. No.3447/2023 which was upheld by the Division Bench of this Court in an intra Court appeal, the concurrent orders passed by this Court have been assailed before the Hon’ble Supreme Court, and that the acknowledgment of the petitioner’s MDCAT result being valid for two years shall be subject to the final outcome of the decision by the Hon’ble Supreme Court. This, in my view, brings to an end the matter regarding contempt of Court.

2. The petitioner has been in litigation ever since 27.10.2023 seeking for her MDCAT result to be valid for a period of two years in terms of Regulation 10(5) of the Pakistan Medical Commission Conduct of Examinations Regulations, 2021, and due to this, the admissions for MBBS Session 2023-2024 have come to a close. The petitioner has already submitted an application for admission in MBBS Session 2023-2024 in Azad Jammu & Kashmir Medical and Dental College, but has not been accommodated as yet since the admission in its constituent colleges have been completed. Any grievance that the petitioner may have may be redressed by the Regulator, PM&DC, which shall endeavor to redress such grievance in accordance with the law.

3. The instant petition stands disposed of in the above terms.
