

ORDER SHEET.

IN THE ISLAMABAD HIGH COURT, ISLAMABAD.
JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

C. M. A No. 04/2025

Batoor Khan

Versus

The Federal Public Service Commission through its Chairman

S. No. of order/ proceedings	Date of order/ Proceedings	Order with signature of Judge and that of parties or counsel where necessary.
(02)	20.02.2025	Mr. Asad Ullah Taimur Muhmand, Advocate for the appellant.

The appellant is aggrieved by Memorandum dated 30.05.2024, pursuant to which reasons were recorded as to rejection of his candidature for special CSS competitive examination, 2023.

2. The learned counsel for the appellant states that the appellant is a candidate from Balochistan. The appellant had previously attempted to qualify in the CSS examination thrice. The appellant sought to sit in the special CSS competitive examination but was not allowed to do so on the basis that he did not submit his domicile certificate. He states that the application included the domicile certificate of his father, which included details of the appellant and all other siblings. After the scrutiny process, it was identified that the appellant’s personal domicile was also required, which was also provided.

Notwithstanding the same and the fact that the Federal Public Service Commission (FPSC) was aware of the credentials of the appellant as he had previously sat in the CSS exam as a candidate from Balochistan thrice, while he was allowed to sit in the special CSS competitive examination, 2023, his result was not issued.

3. Let notices be issued to the respondent for 10.04.2025, who will file report and para-wise comments within a period of two weeks. In the report the respondent will state whether the details of the domicile of the appellant was available on record with FPSC. Let the report further reflect whether the papers taken by the appellant were evaluated and the outcome of such evaluation.
