CM no.917/2023

This CM prays for the petition to be dismissed for becoming infructuous in view of the State-owned Enterprises (Governance and Operations) Act, 2023, whereby the elections of the directors were to be held in accordance with the said legislation but were not so held.

2      Learned AAG concedes that the election of the current board of directors under challenge was void on the very date that it was held, and that the assumption of office or functioning by such directors would be unlawful. He submits that the board of directors prior to the current board in view of section 158 of the Companies Act 2017 would continue to function instead.

3      Let notice be issued to the petitioner for the date already fixed in the matter.
